FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Do I have to sign up again?
You should continue to use your email address as your family login as well as the usernames and passwords for each family member that you created last year. However, you will need to register each person for this year's Summer Reading Challenge once you have logged into the account.

Do I have to confirm my email address?
If you would like to group your family under one login, you will have to confirm your email address. Individuals do not need to confirm their email.

Do I need a library card to join?
Library cards are not required. Everyone is encouraged to participate!

How do I count my pages?
Some books don’t have page numbers, including picture books, manga, ebooks and audiobooks. Those books still count! You can look up the number of pages in the print copy on the library catalog or on Amazon to submit. Picture books are generally 32 pages. Books read together as a family count for each of the readers and listeners.

How do I log my pages and challenges?
Show us your paper log every time you visit the library, or log your pages and challenges online between June 2nd and July 27th. Tracking the pages as you complete each book will earn you more chances towards the weekly drawings.

Do I have to do the bonus challenges?
Challenges earn you more entries into our prize drawings, but are not required to participate.

When do I pick up my prizes?
All regular prizes need to be picked up by August 3rd. Prize selection will also vary throughout the summer, so don’t wait to pick up all your prizes at the end! Grand prize winners will be notified for their prizes at the end of the summer.
