

Background Check Authorization

Pursuant to the Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) 15 U.S.C. §1861, you are notified of the Joliet Public Library's intent to conduct a check of your background which may affect your application for employment or employment status. This check may include driving record, driver's license verification, criminal background, employment, references and education verification.

Discovery of certain adverse information on the background or records check may be grounds for the Joliet Public Library to take action against an applicant or employee, including but not limited to: not hiring or withdrawal of a contingent job offer, suspension, reassignment, or termination of employment.

Your signature below authorizes the Joliet Public Library to conduct necessary background checks in conjunction with your application for employment and releases the Joliet Public Library from any and all liability in conducting this search.
